

Strike out on a new path at our Radolfzell location on Lake Constance

Hardware Developer (all*)

Our six top benefits for you at a glance:

- Fast growing high-tech company in the field of medical technology
- Market leader in 3D position measurement systems
- Flat hierarchies and a culture that values employees
- Tailored training options and opportunities to take on responsibility
- 30 days' vacation, flexible working hours, and a range of team events
- Company health scheme with various activities

What you bring to the team

- University or college graduate in Electrical Engineering or similar degree
- Several years' experience in the development of electronic circuits and computer-aided engineering (CAE) tools
- Knowledge in the design of low-noise electronics
- Knowledge of agile methods in product development is an advantage
- Solid German and very good English language skills, written and spoken

Tasks you can look forward to

- Developing the components of our Aurora measurement system from the initial idea right through to release
- Taking account of standard requirements such as patient safety and EMC
- Designing circuit diagrams for analog and digital electronic assemblies in the medical technology application field
- Testing prototypes as well as compiling documentation in German and English

Just right for you?
Then we look forward to your application!
careers@ndieurope.com

Do you want to know more about us?
www.xing.com
www.linkedin.com
www.ndigital.com

Do you have any questions?
Your contact:
Ms Annette Schönepauck
HR Generalist
+49 7732 8234 144